(a) From June quarter 1989, September quarter 1991 and September quarter 1992, respectively, data are not comparable with those for previous periods as some caravan parks previously classified as short-term were reclassified as long-term. (b) Including both on-site van sites and other powered sites. (c) From September quarter 1992, caravan park sites, etc. permanently reserved but only casually occupied by their tenants have been recorded continuously as site nights occupied irrespective of whether the tenants of individual sites were in residence on any particular night. Occupancy measures from September quarter 1992 are not therefore comparable with those from previous quarters.

PC Ausstats

How can it help you?

What is PC AUSSTATS?

- ★ a 24 hour on line access system to the latest Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) data,
- ★ an easy to use way of loading ABS data on your PC,
- ★ enables you to manipulate ABS data for your own purposes and
- ★ an access to ABS time series data

What is PC AUSSTATS used for?

Every day people in different industries make decisions affecting their day-to-day and future business operations. PC AUSSTATS provides current and time series data on a range of economic and demographic topics. All of the data can be used by decision makers in all industries.

In general the data available on PC AUSSTATS can be used to look at trends in economic and demographic conditions at national and State levels.

Case Study

A Brisbane company with interests in agriculture, construction and manufacturing wanted to identify trends in these industries in order to improve planning.

The ABS had provided the company with both consultancy and publication subscription services in the past but they now needed additional information as soon as it became available.

A meeting was organised between company representatives and ABS consultants to discuss their statistical requirements

The ABS consultants were able to demonstrate how PC AUSSTATS could access the latest available data over a 10 to 15 year time series and also integrate that data with the company's own software for analysis.

By using PC AUSSTATS, the company was now able to access the relevant time series to produce their own trends. They are now better placed to make important directional decisions.

How does PC AUSSTATS work?

PC AUSSTATS allows the user to be connected to the ABS database through their own PC. Once the data required are selected, the downloading to a PC is done by the PC AUSSTATS software. Once downloaded the data are in a format that is compatible to most spreadsheet packages and ready for manipulation and analysis.
